

Children of Police Officers, Firefighters, EMT and K-12 Teachers Award

The Children of Police Officers, Firefighters, EMT and Teachers Award acknowledges new and continuing, full-time, degree-seeking NYIT undergraduate students with parents or legal guardians who are active, fully employed (non-volunteer) within the tristate region (NY, NJ, CT) serving their community in the following professional service positions:

- Police Officer
- Firefighter
- Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) in Emergency Medical Services
- Certified Teacher of a K-12th grade

The Children of Police Officers, Firefighters, EMT and Teachers Award could cover up to 50% of a students' flat-rate full-time tuition (i.e. 12-18 credits) for no more than eight continuous full-time semesters of enrollment (six semesters for transfer students) or ten semesters for an approved five-year program (eight semesters for transfer students in an approved five-year program). If the student has been awarded any other 'tuition only' awards (including state grants, Merit scholarships and NYIT grants), the Children of Police Officers, Firefighters, EMT and Teachers Award will supplement up to 50% of tuition. Only credits/courses for full-time enrollment within the student's program of study are eligible. The award applies to fall and spring semesters only. Students who qualify for special discounted tuition packages or have specific program scholarships (e.g. HEOP, an athletic award, Tuition Remission, Tuition Exchange) are disqualified as students may only qualify for one discounted tuition program at a time.
